We ensure that our operations are seamlessly integrated with yours.

Services Portfolio

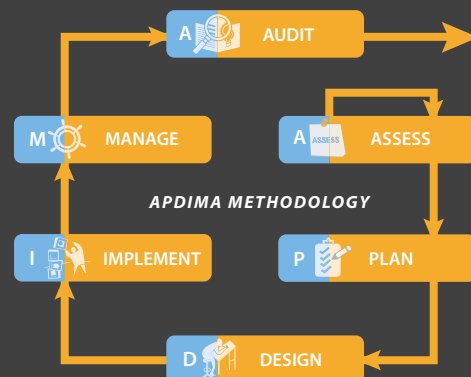

Tailored Services

We pride ourselves on working in partnership with clients to help them meet their business objectives. Our experts / sales consultants will not only work with you to tailor services suited to your needs, but will also advise to strategize your overall IT infrastructure plan, implementation methodology, change management, application requirement analysis and business continuity planning that will maximize your overall benefits. You can be assured that our team will provide you with excellent services all the time.

APDIMA - The Omnitech Way

To its customers, Omnitech promises total commitment and attention to detail on a continuing basis. The proven way that contributes towards this goal is the company's proprietary "APIDMA" methodology. APDIMA is an open and flexible methodology, working on the premise of multiple customer interactions. It enables continuous interactions with the company's valued customers - right from conceptual analysis to planning, solution designing, implementation, post implementation management and regular audits of investment protection and ROI. APDIMA thus builds in a tremendous sense of personal attention, adding value to the company's services.
